COMPANY INFORMATION

As a new presentation emerges for the Antonia Collection, its evolution reaches a new pinnacle, proving to be more than just a trend, and establishing itself as benchmark of contemporary luxury and elegance.

The new 2023 Antonia Collection, focuses on enlightened design staying true to the ethos of “effortless luxury” and an exquisite material mix that has categorized it. With a beautiful addition of bold new case pieces, and the impeccable expansion of its upholstery selection, the Antonia Collection continues to have a proposition of luxury like few others.

However, no true proposition of luxury can ever be complete, or lifestyle worthy of the name, without the radiance of its own light. Thus, Antonia is proud to introduce its new lighting collection. With unique forms and an equal integration of exotic finishes, the Antonia Collection is truly an illuminating experience. Indeed 2023 will be the year where the ANTONIA LIFESTYLE stepped into the light.
