COMPANY INFORMATION

Seven Sundays Studios is a collection of one-of-a-kind home goods that celebrate a simpler, slower, more peaceful existence. It was established in 2017 by Anya Dinovich, fiber artist based in San Francisco, California.

Exploring the relationship between color, shape and touch, designs are rarely repeated and never identical.

Anya's creative process is driven by the bonds between our surroundings and happiness, our creativity and well-being, and beauty of the imperfection.

Anya's work allows her to slow down, disconnect and daydream. Working with wool and sheepskins Anya draws her inspiration from the beauty, warmth and organic nature of the materials.

Anya compares the feeling she gets while working on her art to that of a lazy, slow and peaceful Sunday - a day of indulging in doing nothing, being enveloped in another's company, relaxing and dreaming.

She hopes her work brings this mood to your home where every day feels like a Sunday.
