COMPANY INFORMATION

Wexel Art proudly embraces our entrepreneurial spirit, which is inspired by and led by women. Founded by two visionary women who believe the power of showcasing life's little pleasures should be simple and rewarding, our acrylic frames are as beautiful as the art you showcase. With a clean, contemporary design, our art displays are designed to fit into any decor. Whether you change your art or photos daily, seasonally, or yearly, Wexel frames consistently elevate every display with sophistication and style.

Wexel Art collaborates with independent artists to curate an exceptional and unique collection of ready-framed art. This collection continually evolves, and every purchase directly supports the contributing artists.

High Point Special: Get free shipping on any order written at the show!
