Precedent's Art Deco Revival: Modern Furniture with a Classic Twist

HIGH POINT, N.C. – This October, Precedent incorporates elements of playfulness at fall 2024 High Point Market, combining fun, creativity, and sophistication. This trend is evident in their bold colors, unique shapes, and whimsical details that draw inspiration from the timeless style of the Art Deco period. By merging the sophistication of the early 20th century with contemporary design elements, Precedent creates the perfect environment for those looking to create fun, modern interiors.

“This season, Precedent seamlessly combined playful design with timeless sophistication, delivering bold, customizable furniture for modern interiors,” said Senior Vice President of Sales, Tom Zaliagiris.

Precedent also introduces a new create-your-own dining chair program, aptly named ‘Signature Sides’ that will reside inside of the Studio P Custom Furniture Program. This innovative program offers customers the opportunity to create personalized dining chairs that suit their unique tastes and individuality.

They will add new options to their Nocturne Bed Custom Bed Program as well, also a part of Studio P. The new options include a customizable storage bed drawer and a sleek modern bed frame. Both are perfect for maximizing space in your bedroom while keeping essentials neatly tucked away.

Precedent’s introductions also emphasize soft and inviting curves, creating furniture that is both comfortable and aesthetically pleasing. Additionally, oversized seating options provide ample space for relaxation, ensuring that style and comfort coexist harmoniously in any living area.

Standing behind the commitment to prioritize sustainability, Precedent continues to follow sustainable practices such as building furniture with certified lumber and recycled steel, underscoring the brand’s promise to promote environmental responsibility.
