FROM STEERS TO SKI LODGES: PREVIEW WHITTEMORE-SHERRILL'S HAND-PAINTED LEATHER CREATIONS FOR HIGH POINT MARKET

HIGH POINT, NC – Whittemore-Sherrill LTD, a cornerstone of Sherrill Furniture Brands, is proud to unveil its latest leather designs at the upcoming fall High Point Market. The brand, known for its impeccable craftsmanship, introduces an extraordinary collection that combines rugged modern aesthetics with refined luxury, emphasizing both comfort and durability.

This season's introductions feature hand-painted leather designs inspired by diverse themes, including a ski lodge, Italian road racing, bull silhouettes, and a striking moose head motif with a painted horn and etched elk. These artful elements are blended with Whittemore-Sherrill's renowned commitment to quality and innovation.

These new pieces perfectly balance elegance with practicality, delivering a warm, inviting space that reflects both modern intuition and tradition.

“Our latest collection represents the best leather craftsmanship you’ll find at High Point Market, and we proudly stand behind that,” said Johnny Suddreth, Vice President of Sales at Whittemore-Sherrill. “We test each piece numerous times to make sure we get the pitch and sit perfect, then we select the best materials to create pieces that are both rugged and refined.”

In addition to the new designs, Whittemore-Sherrill continues to honor its legacy of sourcing only the finest leather hides from around the world seen here in the new 1849-01 Chair with hand-cut leather horseshoe details and spaced decorative nails. The brand’s eight-way hand-tied frames, built in their North Carolina facility, are crafted to meet the exact specifications of each customer, ensuring unmatched quality and personalization.

“Our collection is a reflection of who we are as a brand—dedicated to providing unparalleled, custom-made leather upholstery that fits our customers perfectly,” said Charles Sherrill, CEO. “From the design phase to the final product, every piece showcases the best of American ingenuity and SHERRILL craftsmanship.”
