Inspired by 12th-century flying buttresses, the Brooks Dining Table pays homage to Gothic architecture, showcasing strength and mastery in its design as a modern tribute to this structural marvel.

Inspired by the shapes and geometry of the Memphis Milano movement, the Dino Dining Table is a contemporary approach to 1980's design.

The Aero Console, a striking blend of metal, glass and wood that exemplifies contemporary design. This piece features a smooth, gracefully curved silhouette that adds a touch of elegance to any space.

The Met Alcove Console from The Met Facade Collection draws inspiration from the museum's alcove niches and pillars, blending timeless elegance with modern design for classic yet contemporary appeal.

The exquisite Pavilion Dining Table combines the classical grandeur of The Met Pavilion with contemporary style. It features a sleek beveled top and intricate arches that showcase timeless beauty.

The Salerno Console showcases a striking design that combines cylindrical and conical bases, creating a visually intriguing silhouette.

The Valencia Console with Drawers, inspired by the parabolic curve, incorporates half of this elegant shape. The drawers enhance functionality while preserving the console's sophisticated aesthetic.

COMPANY INFORMATION

Quality craftsmanship.

Visionary design.

Abner Henry believes that the spirit in which furniture is made, the beauty of the design itself, and the story behind it make each piece art. Art influences us by marking traditions, instilling values, and inspiring creativity within us. We hope that our pieces help you create spaces to inspire others.

We house our manufacturing facility, finishing rooms, and color laboratory, which together become a playground for the imagination. When the finest resources are at your fingertips, you're able to create one-of-a-kind pieces that once lived in your imagination alone.
