Fine Art Handcrafted Lighting Introduces Antonia Straight Collection

MIAMI, FL-- Fine Art Handcrafted Lighting (www.finearthl.com) is excited to announce the launch of the Antonia Straight Collection, an elegant augmentation to the successful line first introduced in April 2023. While the original collection featured elegant, curved forms, this new line distinguishes itself with sleek, single linear cylinders, creating a striking visual contrast.

This collection, which includes pendants and sconces, exemplifies the finest in craftsmanship. Each piece is handcrafted using time-honored techniques passed down through generations. Skilled artisans apply hand-finished techniques, utilizing materials like solid optic crystal, parchment skins, and metals. These elements are interchangeable, offering a fully customizable and luxurious experience.

"Fine Art Handcrafted Lighting is thrilled to bring the Antonia Straight Collection to life. Our artisans, whose skills have been perfected over generations, use masterful techniques to create a line of the highest quality craftsmanship," states Peter Yera, Director of Design at Fine Art Handcrafted Lighting. "From the tubal line structure to the seamless blend of Art Déco and Mid-Century Modern design, this collection's bold and elegant features will elevate any space with a sophisticated touch."

"The Antonia Collection was born from a dedication to creating stunning forms that evoke unique emotions while drawing from pristine functionality," said Antonia Caicedo, renowned designer of the Antonia Collection. "The Antonia Straight Collection is a further embodiment of that dedication, leveraging sleek lines and structure to deliver a lighting experience that gives any room a unique feel. Showcasing the new collection at Fine Art Handcrafted Lighting was a natural fit, and we look forward to continuing our partnership as the Antonia Collection continues to transform with my vision."

The Antonia Straight Collection and The Antonia Collection are exclusively for indoor use. Available at Fine Art Handcrafted Lighting headquarters in Miami, and Fine Art Handcrafted Lighting showrooms at Dallas Market Center and High Point. Open to the trade, by appointment only. Take Flight with Blade: The Striking New Aviation-Inspired Collection from Fine Art Handcrafted Lighting

MIAMI, FL— Prepare to elevate your home décor with the launch of the Blade Collection, an aviation-inspired collection from Fine Art Handcrafted Lighting (www.finearthl.com).

Drawing inspiration from the streamlined forms of propellers and airplane wings, the Blade Collection embodies modern craftsmanship at its finest. Each piece is meticulously handcrafted, combining optic crystal, metal, and wood cladding to create a look that is both sleek and bold. The collection includes five pendant fixtures and two sconces, offered in two finishes: a sophisticated reflective champagne and our modern black finish.

The Blade Collection showcases two distinctive styles. The first style, Wings, evokes the aerodynamic profile and wings of an aircraft. Solid, individually hand-carved pieces of optic crystal, featuring frosted laser etching, allow the light to softly glow from within. The addition of smooth-grained wood adds structural intricacy, bringing a refined touch to these unique fixtures.

The second style, Chevron, captures the dynamic movement of a fleet of planes in formation. This bold, graphic design is imagined with a modern twist, offering a combination of elegance and strength that adds visual impact to any space.

“Imagine a fleet of planes flying toward you, their glow cascading in perfect unison, creating breathtaking focal points of light. That’s the essence of the Chevron pieces. With the Airplane wing, the long, linear shapes evoke the wings of planes, with the light and dark interplay of crystal and wood coming together to form an incredible balance of softness and strength,” says Peter Yera, Director of Design at Fine Art Handcrafted Lighting.

The Blade Collection is designed exclusively for indoor use and is available at Fine Art Handcrafted Lighting’s Miami headquarters, as well as their showrooms in the Dallas Market Center and High Point. Showrooms are open to the trade, by appointment only.
