In the serene landscapes of Eastern Europe, where the whispers of ancient forests echo through the valleys, lies the origin of Codri Furniture. "Codri," the Romanian word for "forest," embodies our deep connection to nature and our commitment to preserving it. Our story began in a modest family workshop in Moldova, under the meticulous design of Gheorghe Dragancea.

Four years ago, Gheorghe took a bold step by moving the business to Naperville, centralizing operations and expanding our reach. Today, Codri Furniture collaborates with independent representatives and companies to deliver the finest modern furniture designs across the globe.

Our Style

Codri Furniture is defined by its high-quality craftsmanship and unique mid-century modern style.
