The Serene Executive Office Chair pairs Napa leather with sleek metallic accents and ergonomic support, featuring adjustable lumbar support, seat depth, and recline settings for personalized comfort.

The Hartwell Office Desk pairs a refined, modern design with functional details, bringing a polished, furniture-inspired look to the home office.

The Matteo Lounge Chair and Ottoman combines premium Napa leather, a sculpted wood shell, and reclining comfort for a refined, modern addition to any living space.

The 60-inch Opal Aurelia Fluted Standing Desk combines sculptural fluted detailing with sit-stand functionality, bringing modern elegance and ergonomic flexibility to the home office.

The Mathias high-back chair pairs a sculpted silhouette with a bentwood shell and green fabric upholstery, bringing attainable mid-century style and texture to the home office.

The Ark EL executive desk pairs sculptural trapezoid legs with a discreet dual-motor lift, blending architectural design with seamless sit-stand functionality for a refined workspace.

The Arundel Coffee Table pairs rich walnut and stone across two stepped heights, accented with champagne gold details for a refined, sculptural centerpiece that balances warmth and modern luxury.

The 55-inch Norwood Electric Standing Desk features a walnut-finish top, dual motors, memory presets, cable management, and a stitched edge for a refined, furniture-like look.

COMPANY INFORMATION

Eureka Ergonomic designs furniture for the home. Founded in 2016 in Corona, California, the company made its name in the home office and now carries the same point of view into the living room, the dining room and the bedroom, shipping from its own US warehouses. Ergonomics has long been framed as cold and clinical; we treat it as the foundation of thoughtful design, beginning with how a space makes people feel.

At Fall Market, D440 debuts the Arundel Collection by Eureka Ergonomic, five pieces for the living room, the dining room and the bedroom in walnut, leather, stone and brass, alongside the Opal desk, featured in Wired's Best Standing Desks of 2026, and new Mathias variants. Designers and buyers can book a half hour with us on any Market Day. Trade program: sales@eurekaergonomic.com, (951) 254-3766.
