COMPANY INFORMATION

Based in Hampstead, NC, Mangosteen Art Prints is an art publishing platform and online store dedicated to bringing joyful, abstract, and affordable prints into homes, offices, and design projects. Launched in 2025 the company was founded on a simple belief: art can spark joy and creativity in its viewers. Mangosteen partners with talented artists, designers, and children to create seasonal, curated collections of colorful abstract designs that complement contemporary interiors. Each piece is offered as a customizable, made-to-order print, produced with premium fade-resistant inks and archival materials for fine art paper and canvas with custom framing, and an expanding range of home décor products such as curtains, shower curtains, cushions, rugs, bedding, blankets, plates, mats and more. Mangosteen provides reproduction, image editing, curation, and art installation services in surrounding areas, and offers licensing agreements to large manufacturers. Since its launch, the brand has grown from a digital storefront into a local presence with a year-round booth at Sandalwood Shoppes in Hampstead.

This fall, Mangosteen enters the design trade for the first time as a temporary exhibitor at High Point Market, showcasing its collections at Suites at Market Square, Booth M-8018. Mangosteen Art Prints invites the interior design community to discover art that frees the soul — bold pieces that spark conversation and bring lasting personality to any room — at wholesale prices.
