COMPANY INFORMATION

Susan Harter Muralpapers creates hand-painted scenic wallcoverings and coordinating textiles that transform interiors into timeless works of art. Inspired by the natural world, each design begins as an original painting by acclaimed artist Susan Harter, capturing the quiet beauty of landscapes, botanicals, and architectural vistas with remarkable depth and artistry.

Printed on archival canvas and fully customizable in scale and color, these muralpapers are crafted for designers seeking one-of-a-kind interiors that evoke a sense of place, serenity, and enduring elegance.

This season, they are introducing their first collection of handwoven fabrics, thoughtfully designed to complement the signature murals with rich textures and natural fibers including silk, mohair, alpaca, linen, and baby camel hair.

Rooted in fine art and created for exceptional interiors, Susan Harter Muralpapers offers designers a complete, immersive approach to storytelling through walls, textiles, and craftsmanship. Every collection reflects an unwavering commitment to artistry, authenticity, and the beauty of nature, creating spaces that feel both deeply personal and effortlessly luxurious.
