NEW INTRODUCTIONS + MARKET STORIES

COMPANY

Built Through Experience

Classic Home combines globally informed design, integrated manufacturing and material integrity to create purposeful collections for the trade.

WHERE WE STARTED

Classic Home began with handwoven rugs and a hands-on approach to product: understand the material, learn the process and build lasting relationships with the people who make and sell it.

WHAT CONTINUES TO DRIVE US

More than 35 years later, that same discipline informs furniture, lighting, décor and textiles developed with clarity, consistency and a deep understanding of construction, proportion and finish.

CRAFTSMANSHIP

MATERIAL INTEGRITY

INTENTIONAL DESIGN

INTEGRATED EXECUTION

MARKET OVERVIEW

A Precise View Of What Is New

October introductions span furniture, lighting and a strategic lifestyle partnership, with material and manufacturing stories that offer multiple angles to pursue.

VERTICAL MANUFACTURING

Brookside expands from dining into new bedroom and occasional programs. Margaux debuts. Baylee grows.

RECLAIMED BY DESIGN

A broad assortment in reclaimed elm, pine and oak brings the material story across storage, dining, seating and occasional.

LIGHTING

Five coordinated lighting families expand the whole-home presentation through glass, rattan, leather, marble and travertine.

MARGARITAVILLE

Villa by Classic Home partners with Hooker Furnishings and Margaritaville on a 30-piece pillow collection.

Mango Wood | Toasted Chestnut | 36W x 19D x 33H

BAYLEE 3 DRAWER NIGHTSTAND

Mango Wood | Cocoa Brown | 36W x 18D x 30H

MATERIAL STORY

Reclaimed By Design

Reclaimed materials are not a single-product story this market. They run across cabinets, dining, benches and occasional, creating a broad editorial angle rooted in material integrity.
